Candidate proposed and seconded by two existing Fellows of the Society by October
Two references sought for the candidate and received by December
Candidate's case reviewed in subject Scrutiny Committee January- February.
Opportunity to provide updates to nominations (highly recommended) in July
Shortlists of candidates are presented to Vice Presidents by Scrutiny Committee Chairs to arrive at a combined shortlist, one for STEMM, one for Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences
Candidates unsuccessful this year, and within 5 years since initial nomination, are rolled-over for consideration in next year's election cycle
Short lists for STEMM and for Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences are submitted to a Special meeting of Council. Council determines a final list to go to ballot.
Ballot of the Fellowship to approve the list of candidates. Candidates must receive the support of 70% of the returned ballots.
Results are announced in April, and new Fellows formally admitted during the Annual General Meeting in May